ARTIST PROFILE

RADEMAN

RADEMAN is a South African-born, Australia-based independent country-rock artist whose work is grounded in direct storytelling, mature perspective and hard-earned resilience.

The 2026 release cycle forms one continuous arc. GET BACK UP is the decision to rise after failure. LIONS DON'T ROAR is the disciplined strength that follows. THE WAR INSIDE brings that journey together across a sixteen-track debut album.

The music speaks to adults carrying private battles, work, family and responsibility. Its country-rock foundation draws on outlaw country, Southern rock and Americana while keeping the message clear: action matters more than noise.

SONG STORY

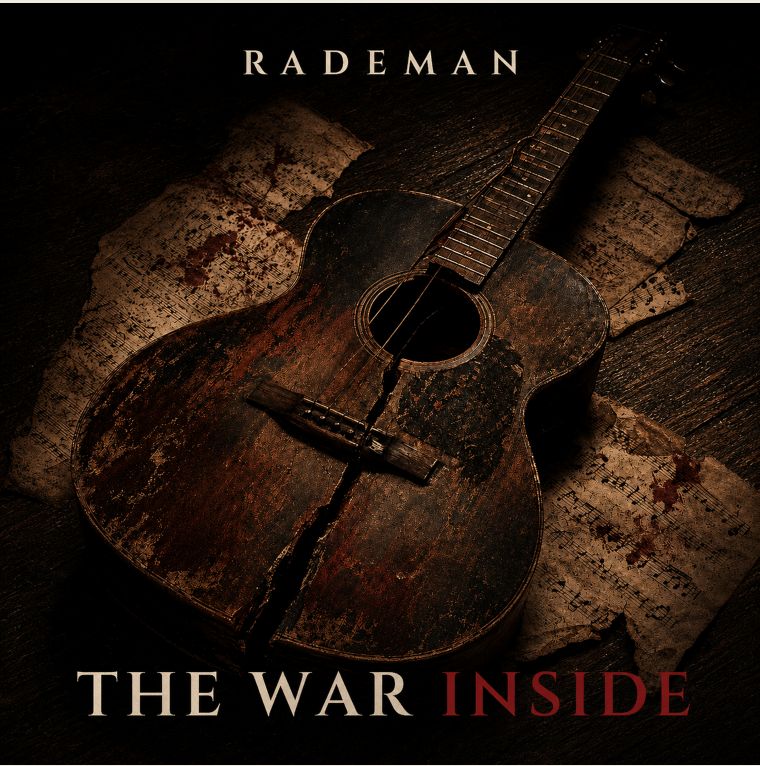

QUIET STRENGTH UNDER PRESSURE

LIONS DON'T ROAR is built for people who carry pressure without turning it into theatre. It is about disciplined action, responsibility and controlled power - the kind of strength that does not need to announce itself.

As the final single before THE WAR INSIDE, it moves the RADEMAN story beyond getting back up. Recovery becomes a code: hold your line, carry what is yours and let your actions speak.

PRESS ANGLE

A country-rock single about authority without performance - positioned for country, country-rock, resilience, leadership, fatherhood, training and responsibility audiences.

ALBUM STORY

THE FIGHT NO ONE ELSE CAN SEE

THE WAR INSIDE is a sixteen-track country-rock journey through doubt, discipline, hurt, recovery and purpose. It turns private conflict into a sequence of choices: cut through the noise, face fear, protect standards, forgive, rise and return to what matters.

The album includes GET BACK UP and LIONS DON'T ROAR, but expands beyond both singles into a full narrative about responsibility, brotherhood, humility and legacy.

DISTRIBUTION STATUS

Uploaded 31 July 2026. Successfully processed and delivered by DistroKid to 23 streaming platforms and stores. Release date remains locked to 18 September 2026.
